

WEDDINGS OF EARLY JUNE

Miss Huybertie Lansing Pruyn Married to Charles Sumner Hamlin at Albany.

BISHOP DOANE OFFICIATES

Mayor Quincy of Boston Best Man—
Ceremony Witnessed by a Fashionable Assembly in St. Peter's Church—Other Marriages of Interest.

ALBANY, June 4.—Miss Huybertie Lansing Pruyn, younger daughter of Mrs. John V. L. Pruyn, was married at noon to-day in St. Peter's Church to Charles Sumner Hamlin of Boston. The guests included ex-Gov. and Mrs. Morton, the Misses Morton, Lieut. Gov. and Mrs. Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. J. Pierpont Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Dayton, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hampton Robb, Mr. and Mrs. William Duer of New York; Mr. Morton Otis of Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Davis of Boston. Mr. Hamlin, the groom is a graduate of Harvard '82, and was Assistant Secretary of the Treasury during Mr. Cleveland's Administration.

The ceremony was the simple Episcopal ritual, and was performed amid white lilies, the only flower used. The central aisle was an avenue of white blossoms. When the guests were seated, a musical programme, with selections from Grisson, Mendelssohn, Chopin, Gounod, and Wagner was rendered, and a full surpliced choir sang the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin."

The ushers were Lewis Rathbone Parker, Selden E. Marvin, Jr., Edward Pruyn, Van Rensselaer Erving of Albany, cousins of the bride; George Hamlin of Boston, brother of the bridegroom; Frank Hamlin of Boston, cousin of the bridegroom; M. Wheelwright and N. E. Curtis of New York. Two children dressed in white preceded the bridesmaids. They were Miss Elinor Hamlin of Boston, niece of the bridegroom, and Master William Gorham Rice, Jr., nephew of the bride. The eight bridesmaids were Miss Grace Marvin, Miss Grace Parker, Miss Anna Parker, Miss Harriet Parker of Albany; Miss Hamlin of Boston, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Elizabeth Shaw Oliver of Albany, Miss Lina Morton of Rhinebeck, Miss Cornelia Van Rensselaer Robb of New York. Their gowns were of white hand-made muslin, with bands of valenciennes lace insertion. The yokes were outlined with valenciennes lace. There was not a single touch of color in the costumes. The hats were large white chip, with trimmings of valenciennes lace, white ribbons, and white ostrich plumes. Each bridesmaid carried a cluster of long-stemmed white lilies.

The bride advanced to the altar on the arm of her brother, Col. John V. L. Pruyn, and was given in marriage by her mother. Her costume consisted of heavy lustrous white satin, with a long train, the bodice being embroidered in pearls. Her long tulle veil was fastened with a sprig of natural orange blossoms. She carried no bouquet. At the altar rail the groom, attended by Josiah Quincy, Mayor of Boston, as best man, awaited his bride. Bishop Doane read the marriage service, having come down from the Adirondacks especially for the purpose. The Rev. Drs. Battershall and Robbins assisted.

At the home of Mrs. Pruyn, on Elk Street, the wedding breakfast and reception were held. The decorations, like those at the church, were of white lilies. The bride's table was decorated with natural orange blossoms.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamlin will spend the Summer in Europe, and in the Fall will take up their residence in Boston.

Cumming—Lewis.

A fashionable wedding took place at noon yesterday at Trinity Church, Hoboken, when Miss Julia Stevens Lewis was married to James Millar Cumming by the rector, the Rev. James Clayton Mitchell, assisted by the Right Rev. Thomas A. Starkey, D. D., Bishop of Newark, and the Rev. George C. Houghton, D. D., rector of the Church of the Transfiguration, this city.

The bride wore a gown of white satin, trimmed with old point lace; also a veil of old point lace and orange blossoms. She wore a diamond crescent, the gift of the bridegroom. She was attended by Miss Eleanor Parke Custis Lewis, her sister, as maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Mary B. P. Garnett Lewis, another sister of the bride; Miss Esther H. Lewis of Berryville, Va., a cousin of the bride; Miss Alice Stuart Walker of Morristown, N. J.; Miss Elise C. Mitchell of Bethlehem, Penn.; Miss Harriet Griffin of Buffalo, N. Y., and Miss Dilly S. Fleming of Newark, N. J. Miss Mary Stevens, a daughter of the late John Stevens of Castle Point, was the flower girl.

Samuel A. Clarke of Newark was best man, and the ushers were James F. Lewis and Theodore F. Stevens of Hoboken, Edward H. Wright, Jr., William B. Kinley, Percy Ballantine, and Robert D. Ballantine, all of Newark. Mr. Edwin A. S. Lewis, a brother of the bride, gave the bride away.

Mrs. Cumming was a daughter of the late Edward Parke Custis Lewis, United States Minister to Portugal under President Cleveland's first administration. Mrs. Cumming is a granddaughter of the late Edwin A. Stevens of Castle Point, Hoboken. On the paternal side she is a direct descendant of Betty Washington, Gen. Washington's sister, and is also a direct descendant of Mrs. Martha Washington through her first marriage with Mr. Custis.

Mr. Cumming is the son of Robert Cumming of Newark, and formerly of Scotland. He is a member of the Essex Troup of Newark, and is in business in New York. Following the ceremony at the church, a large reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. E. P. C. Lewis, at 509 River Street, Hoboken. The house was profusely decorated with flowers and potted plants. The church was elaborately decorated with flowers and potted plants from the greenhouses at Castle Point.

Among those present were Col. and Mrs. Edwin A. Stevens, Richard Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Francis B. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. C. Albert Stevens, all of Castle Point, Hoboken; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cumming, Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Cumming, Miss Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Clark, Mr. and Mrs. J. Herbert Ballantine, Miss Ballantine, all of Newark; Chancellor and Mrs. Alexander T. McGill of Jersey City, Mrs. James A. Bryan of Newberne, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Conover of Princeton, Miss Mary C. Coxe of Philadelphia, Gen. and Mrs. H. C. Walker, Miss Walker, H. Mercer Walker, Mr. and Mrs. W. Roscoe Lyon, Richard B. Lyon, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. McCurdy, Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. McCurdy, Mrs. Stephen Whitney, Miss Day, Miss Bryce, Mr. and Mrs. H. Ward Ford, Mr. and Mrs. William Shippen, all of Morristown; Col. and Mrs. James E. Flemming, Capt. Frederick Frelinghuysen, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heath, Col. and Mrs. Edward T. Kinney, Miss Wright, Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Kinney, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas N. McCarter, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. F. Wolcott Jackson, Miss Jackson, William F. Jackson, Charles A. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Cortlandt Parker, Cortlandt Parker, Jr., James Perry, Eugene Vanderpool, the Misses Vanderpool, all of Newark; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis H. Hyde, Mrs. W. W. Shippen, the Misses Shippen, Miss Rhett, Mrs. J. Pierpont Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Halsey, Col. and Mrs. Louis Fitzgerald, Miss Fitzgerald, Mrs. John J. Noeser, the Misses Noeser, the Messrs. Noeser, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Gardiner, Miss Gardiner, Mr. and Mrs. J. Campbell Maben, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Babcock, Miss Babcock, Mr. and Mrs. Philip J. Sands, the Misses Sands, Mrs. Frederick Goodridge, Miss Goodridge, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. L. Lewis, Charles Carroll Goldsborough, W. B. Blackwell, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Agnew, Col. George B. Agnew, Cornelius R. Agnew, Mr. and Mrs. M. Taylor Pyne, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. C. Ledyard Blair, all of New York; Viscount and Viscountess Santo Thyrso, Portuguese Minister to the United States; Count and Countess de Brazza Savorgnan.

Morris—Mazergue.

The wedding of Dr. Robert Tuttle Morris of this city to Mrs. Aimee Reynand Mazergue took place at the bride's home, in Mount Vernon, yesterday. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Henry Van Dyke, D. D. The bride is the daughter of Gustave Reynand of Fleetwood, Mount Vernon.

Sandhusen—Crafts.

Mrs. Lillian C. Crafts of Cumberland Street, Brooklyn, and Dr. George Sandhusen, also of Brooklyn, were married yesterday afternoon in the English Lutheran Church of the Holy Trinity, at Cumberland Street and Lafayette Avenue, Brooklyn. The pastor, the Rev. Dr. A. Steimle, performed the ceremony.

W. F. WAKEMAN A BENEDICT.

The Appraiser's Quiet Marriage to Miss Helen E. Ainsworth a Surprise.

Wilbur F. Wakeman, the United States Appraiser at this port, was quietly married yesterday morning to Miss Helen E. Ainsworth of this city. The first news of this event was a complete surprise to Mr. Wakeman's official associates, and very few, if any, of his personal friends were aware of his intention to change his domestic state. On Friday afternoon he left his office in the Appraisers' Stores at the usual hour without betraying any of the ante-nuptial nervousness of a bridegroom. He said that he was going to Chicago for a few days, and asked his private secretary, Mr. Evans, to meet him at the train early yesterday morning. Mr. Evans kept the appointment punctually, and found the newly wedded pair at the railway station. He says that he had not suspected that Mr. Wakeman had such an act in contemplation.

Mr. Wakeman is forty-one years old, and had been a widower for several years. Miss Ainsworth has for some time been the cashier of the American Protective Tariff League, at 135 West Twenty-third Street, of which Mr. Wakeman has been the Secretary since 1890. It is expected that Mr. and Mrs. Wakeman will stop at Niagara Falls on their way to Chicago. Numerous congratulations by wire and by mail followed them yesterday.